To whom it may concern;

I am a resident of the State of Wisconsin and I have been on the Wisconsin "No Call" list since the law went into effect.

I have noticed a definitive decline in the number of solicitation calls that my family and I receive over the last couple of years.

I do not feel the request of the Consumer Bankers Association to relax the restrictions placed on solictors by a law passed by the State of Wisconsin is in my best interest.

My electronic mailbox (email) and my postal mailbox are already overflowing with offers for credit cards, second mortgages, and home loans. I do not wish to have my time and my phone line tied up with telemarketers asking for my business.

If I have need of their services I am perfectly capable of seeking them out on my own.

Please don't let the dollars of this special interest group speak louder than the will of the people. Please leave our state law as it is.

Thank You
